Hello Everyone-

I will keep it short and to the point. THANK YOU!

We tend to move so quickly that we hardly take the time to say thank you. We have so many projects going on I wouldn't dare try to list them all.

Yes, we have made many changes. The changes were necessary to maintain the strength of our Brand. I appreciate your patience and understanding during our changes.

Enjoy this Issue.

BEAUTY TIP:

Beauty Drive

If you have plucked off almost all of your eyebrows. There is a something that may help...

Remember the three Fs: Fill, Fix, and Feather!

First, pick a pencil that matches your brow color. Fill in the entire brow, not just bald spots — this is important to making sure everything blends together. Then fix extra thin areas (like where your outer brow connects to the arch) with more pencil. Finish by feathering out the color: Brush a clean mascara wand through each brow in short strokes to diffuse any harsh lines.

Hope this helps!

BUSINESS ADVICE

As the Founder of Katwalk Planet I can probably count on one hand the number of Artists, Models and Producers that have ever purchased an Advertising Space from us without us staying on them to promote themselves. Of the few who have decided to promote on their own with us they have seen a great change and made profitable connections.

What amazes me about Models today is how they invest so much money in taking photographs with someone who's ultimate goal is to see her naked and of course the photos and the Model get nowhere, yet when they meet the Founder of an International Publishing Firm they want it for free based on high priced bathroom pics. Artists and Producers do something similar to this also. I am definitely not fussing at you sweeties. I want you all to succeed, but the sad truth is YOU HAVE TO SPEND MONEY TO MAKE MONEY! So start investing in YOU! Not just your clothes, shoes, hair and accessories. I mean invest in your talent. Promote yourself in as many ways possible! Dive completely into it. Come up for air every now and then, but don't stop until you've achieved your goals!

Good Luck!

ASK MS KATWALK PLANET

Q:

Ms. Kat-

I read your book and I am going through a confusing situation right now. My boyfriend landed a new job and has returned to school and I am getting less and less time. I work and go to school also, and I still find time for my social life. It seems lately he will only call when it sexually convenient for him and this causes a problem because I'm not gonna have sex and we barely talk. For the past 3 weeks I have only received texts messages. He says I am being insecure. I honestly don't think he is cheating, but it would be nice to get quality time, not sex time. Please help me, Ms. Kat!

~Just a Little Confused

Want to ask Ms. Kat a question?

E-Mail her at

katrina@katwalkplanet.com

A:

Just a Little Confused-

First of all, Thank you for reading my book! Now, about this Guy. You already know what I'm going to say, focus on YOU! Having a boyfriend is wonderful thing, but don't forget about you. Don't get sidetracked with this nonsense. You are probably not even functioning at 100% because of this situation. He may just be busy and or tired, and of course there is always the cheat factor. We will just say he is tired. I do agree with you about the sexual convenience. If you are his girlfriend then there should be something more between the two of you other than sex. I think you should just ease up off him and let have his rope/freedom. But, don't you dare sit around doing nothing. Get out of the house hang out with friends or tap into your inner self and discover your talent if you have not done it already because you have read my book. So here it is, you only have two choices. 1. Stay with him because obviously you care about him and take everything that he dishes out and not complain about it anymore because that is the path you are choosing or 2. Set up an appointment for a meeting and you guys talk it out and officially part ways. Good Luck Sweetie!

Nelio

Cornelius Frazier, goes by the name of Nelio and is the CEO of Cloud 9 Money. He was born and raised in Huntsville, Alabama. The subject of Music is something he has always had a passion for. Early in life he really didn't take it as serious as he should have because, he was to caught up in the street life. Once he got his mind back on the right track, he came up with this idea to form his own label. He knew a couple guys who were already doing the music thing and they just needed somewhere to record. He got the money together and they came and helped him put together all the finishing touches. Ever since then Cloud 9 Money has been all Gas no Brakes giving the streets what's on their minds. He got his name Nelio when he was younger in the hood (Clayton Street) he use to think he was running a real mafia with his homeboys and they gave him the name from an old mafia man. He just ran with it from them, since everybody in the city calls him Nelio anyway. He defines success as, "When you feel comfortable or when you have no troubles." Nelio describes his style as Urban. He says you will never catch him without his Bank Card. His favorite color is Black. His favorite foods are Chicken, Chicken Fries, Gummy Bears or any candy that is Gummy and Oranges. His favorite place to eat is Good Fellas. His favorite place to go is to Atlanta. The accomplishment he is most proud of is that industry people know him.

Peoples

Keith Peoples aka Peoples has been in or around the music industry all of his life. Everyone in his family either sings or plays an instrument. Its only natural for the music industry to be his path. He and his business partner, Delano Crain aka Talkalot, built a studio and have been doing it since Middle School. Peoples describes himself as a hard worker who produces an amazing show.

Peoples says, "Success is living comfortably with my family." The Artists he listens to right now are Tupac, Biggie, Jay-Z, T.I. and Bossie. He says his style is, "MINE-COMpletely-MINE. When I speak on a beat, you know it's me and I like that." Peoples says you will never catch him without his Pistol or Permit to carry it. His Mentor is his Father. His favorite color is Black. His favorite foods is Italian. He also likes Mr. Goodbar and Payday candy and Grapes. His favorite places to eat are Olive Garden, Soul Burger and IHOP. His favorite places to go are the Studio, Shooting Range and to visit his family. The most adventurous thing Peoples has ever done is go in the Military. The accomplishments he is most proud of are being a Dad and not being in the Slammer.

Peoples Last Words are: "Sometime when opportunity knocks, it knocks so hard it might scare you. Don't be scared. Be Bold." "To Kat: Thank you for the Opportunity, it's Appreciated."

Georgi Mac

Georgio McCullough aka Georgi Mac decided to pursue his dreams in the music industry after family and friends encouraged him he should. Georgi Mac says, "Success is Simple, I think success is no more than progression. If your putting work into a project and you find at least one aspect or one area that's working your are succeeding in that area. It's the small things that lead up to the big things." The most adventurous thing Georgi Mac has ever done was go on to Panama City, Florida alone, "It was a challenge at first, but by the end of the a lot of new friends." He describes his style as laid back and he likes to watch how things might turn out. Georgi Mac says you will never catch him without some Carmex Chapstick, "I can't stand for my lips to be chapped; lol."

His mentor right now is his girlfriend, she stays on him about things he needs to be doing. "It's fair to call her my second Mother."

His favorite color is Red. His favorite foods are Hamburger Helper, Butterfinger Candy and Oranges without seeds. His favorite places to eat are Zaxby's and Taco Bell and his favorite place to go are the studio, and to be around other musicians and Artists, places where his peers are.

Georgio Mac's Last Words are: "My last words to anyone would be to NEVER GIVE UP; continue to grind no matter what anyone says. If you do that, you will see progress."

TIPS For HER!

1. Blindfold your guy and lead him to a spot in the house where you two haven't gotten it on before. This will definitely get him ready cause you're in complete control and nothing turns a man on faster than a take charge woman! OR...
2. Have your guy sit in a chair. Stand in front of him and slowly strip while giving him a lap dance, teasing him! OR...
3. Wear all black underwear and some boots and nothing else or you may choose to wear boots only. Whisper to him, "You're going to do whatever I say tonight!"

Do any or all of these things to change things up a little.

Trust me... He will do whatever you say that night!

Have FUN!!!

ADVICE For HIM!

Alright Fellas you all know that female arousal is very different from yours.

For you guys, arousal can hit like a freight train, it comes out of the blue or because you spotted a girl with a nice body. For women, though, a picture of a sexy, guy with no shirt usually isn't enough to jump-start the sex engine. Females sex drives are different in a unique way. Women have to be prompted first to want to have sex. This is also a good explanation as to why it's not enough to start kissing your girl on the neck and hope she gets in the mood.

I know your wondering what to do. Well here it is... You have to go Old School!

Seduce her all day long. Start in the morning. Tell her how sexy she is. Give her small kisses on her cheek, her lips, the back of her neck as she's getting ready, or when she's on her way out the door. Throughout the day, let her know you're thinking of her by sending her text messages and maybe a phone call. And at night, when you see her again, hug her, give her a deep kiss, and ask about her day. The more nurtured and adored she feels, the more likely she is to wanna get it on!

Try it... It works!

Have FUN!

Horoscope Road

ARIES MARCH 21– APRIL 20 Your relatives, neighbors, hometown people, or your current local community members are in an uproar about something or someone. There is a decent chance that lies, secrets, mental health issues, self-destructiveness, hospitalization, or institutionalization is involved. You are stuck in the middle of this drama. It can even affect your ability to get any work done. The good news is that your spouse, best friend, or business partner is able to calm people down and get your clansmen to brainstorm long-term solutions rather than just running around freaking out. 	TAURUS APRIL 21–MAY 21 You are working hard to earn more money and to succeed professionally. But your friends, teammates, fellow committee members, networking projects, and/or something Internet related is having a negative affect on your personal finances. Eventually, it causes problems when you want to splurge on loved ones, luxury items, vacations, fun outings, etc. You have some very creative ideas that can help you to resolve the financial challenges, but you will still need to be fiscally responsible when it comes to your social life and your playtime spending. 	GEMINI MAY 22– JUNE 21 You are meant to be having a wonderful time, vacationing, playing with children, falling in love, dancing, working on your favorite hobby, etc. And mostly that is the background theme for the entire month. Just when you think things are going really well, you get upset about your career, public life, or boss and then you get upset about your roommates, private life, or housing situation. But the good feelings are far bigger and more easily felt than the grumpy stuff at the end of the month. 	CANCER JUNE 22–JULY 22 All three of your people-oriented sectors are blending together to create a wonderful energy for you to work with this month. You and your partner can use it for business networking, social outings, bonding with each other's clansmen, etc. If you are single and looking for a romantic, social, or business partner, this could be a great time to ask friends, colleagues, relatives, neighbors, etc to introduce you to interesting new people. You are able to use this month's positive energies for all kinds of social and professional uses. But you are determined to see the good in people no matter how stupid, gossipy, bigoted, and/or unenlightened they might be.
LEO JULY 23– AUGUST 23 You are in the mood to make new friends, join committees and teams, begin a networking project, launch websites or new online profiles, etc. However, there are financial and/or romantic dramas brewing with these new people or social activities in your life. You have excellent back up and support within your family, neighbors, and local community, so do not be afraid to turn to them for help if you need to. You are a gifted communicator, an excellent team player, and a savvy negotiator this month. You will need to figure out how to speak your mind, negotiate for what you want, and convince everyone to play nice together. 	VIRGO AUGUST 24– SEPTEMBER 22 You take your career, reputation, and leadership efforts very seriously. It is important to you that people see you as reliable, smart, and capable. This month, you have some wonderful opportunities to work towards achieving your financial and professional goals. However, your partner or a competitor is unhappy with your level of success, professional focus, etc. By the end of the month, you are beating yourself up for not doing a better job of presenting yourself in the best light. Your inner-critic might be right to attack you, but he could also just be moody and holding you up to unrealistic expectations. Make sure you know which is the case before you start getting too upset about your level of success, achievements to date, leadership style, reputation, etc. 	LIBRA SEPTEMBER 23– OCTOBER 23 You are focusing on political, cultural, religious, legal, or media related activities, tourism, relocating, traveling, global awareness, getting a college degree, teaching, public speaking, opening your heart and mind to the way that others see the world, and/or broadening your horizons. But your health, coworkers, work schedule, and/or workload is not cooperating very nicely. Once you get to spend some time really focusing on these goals, concepts, and activities, you begin to question what it is you know versus what you feel is right. By definition, being open-minded means admitting that you might not have all of the answers. 	SCORPIO OCTOBER 24– NOVEMBER 22 You were already persuasive and charming, now you have fantastic social skills as all three of your "people" oriented sectors work together on your behalf. You can work in pairs or in groups, either way, you are awesome when it comes to getting people to laugh, think, buy, sell, negotiate, communicate, bond, etc. You are also trying to focus on your romantic commitments and your finances. But big trust issues are surfacing and you hate when that happens. As much as you are trying to be smart about things, it is easy to get angry and to start arguing with everyone. Make sure you do not burn any bridges that you might regret later.
SAGITTARIUS NOVEMBER 23– DECEMBER 21 You and a best friend, business partner, or lover are trying to focus on having fun, socializing, making a fresh start between the two of you, etc. If you are single and looking for a partner, things look good for you to find a new partner while socializing and/or playing at your favorite things. Unfortunately, your parents, roommates, and/or boss do not get along well with your partner or your partner is unhappy with something or someone in your private life and then they get upset with someone or something in your public life. Still, the two of you seem to be getting along nicely. 	CAPRICORN DECEMBER 22– JANUARY 20 You have so much happening at work this month. There are so many dramas and fires to put out. Every time you think you have things set up and moving along in a smart and productive manner, something else goes wrong. You end up wanting to telecommute or just call it in from home. And to a point, that is the solution. You can get a lot more accomplished from home. Your playtime, travel, and "me" sectors are all blending nicely together to inspire you to want to run away to some exotic location rather than to deal with the day-to-day hassles at work. That might not be a bad idea, except that you are meant to win big kudos for showing the boss how well you do in these tough situations. 	AQUARIUS JANUARY 21– FEBRUARY 18 You are trying so hard to follow your bliss. And much of the time, that is working for you. But your finances are not cooperating at all. You are able to work on some household finances and find ways to bring more romantic, emotional, and financial security into your home life, but the minute you shift your focus towards playtime activities, date nights, concert tickets, vacations, luxury items, hobbies, etc, the money seems to evaporate into thin air. You will have to find creative ways to entertain yourself on a dime. And if you are working in a happiness-oriented industry (music, theatre, fine dining, luxury sales, etc), then you are going to have to work really hard to make sure that you are getting your fair share of the profits. Someone might not be sharing as well as they should. 	PISCES FEBRUARY 19– MARCH 20 You are focusing on your home, roommates, parents, or your retirement plans. You have some great opportunities to bring more romance, trust, and financial security into your home life. However, for some reason, someone or something in your home upsets you. You try to launch a fresh start, new beginning, or some new project involving your parents, roommates, mortgage, housing situation, chores, landscaping projects, etc, but you seem to be standing in your own way. Then your partner (or a rival) gets upset too. Throughout this chaotic time in your private life, your financial and/or romantics sectors are still funneling good things into your home.
